Outdoor Exhibits Planned To Entice Va. Travelers

RICHMOND — Rest areas on the interstate highways throughout Virginia will be filled with displays of the state's historic and scenic attractions if plans set in motion by the Virginia Travel Conference, held at the Golden Triangle, Norfolk, Virginia on January 13-14, 15 and 16, succeed.

"Travelers on the interstate cannot see anything of Virginia's 'visitor attractions'" a spokesman pointed out. "They may be passing within scant miles of Williamsburg, Charlottesville or Fredericksburg, yet be unaware of what they are missing. The Council has advanced the idea of placing exhibits comprised of pictures showing our great visitor assets supplemented with maps on how to reach these. Our rest areas are the only places on the interstate that a visitor may legally stop."

We wish to thank everyone for their kind expressions of sympathy in the loss of our loved one — for flowers, food, visits, and prayers which helped so much. Larry Johnson Family. 1-28-1tc

To the members of Bible Baptist Church:

The family of the late Mrs. Hattie Ayers would like to express their gratitude to the Bible Baptist Church for all that they did to make the burden of the loss of our mother just a little bit easier. Signed The Children of Mrs. Hattie Ayers. 1-28-1p

I would like to thank all my friends and relatives for prayers cards, letters, gifts and visits during my stay in the hospital and since returning home. Mrs. Clarence Poe. 1-28-1t

I wish to take this opportunity to thank our dear friends and neighbors for their services, gifts, cards and prayers while we were in the hospital. May the Lord bless each and everyone of you. H. C. and Verdie Davis. 1-28-1tc

I wish to thank all my friends, neighbors, relatives, the church and pastor, Rev. W. R. Elder for the prayers, visits, fruit, the beautiful cards also the lovely flowers from Chic Garment Co. and every act of kindness shown me while I was in the hospital and since my return home. You will always be remembered and may God bless each of you. Mrs. Courtney (Lela) Mann 1-28-1p

I would like to thank my neighbors and all my friends for cards and gifts while in Lynchburg Hospital and also at home. And the beautiful birthday cake the Hospital gave me on Dec. 3. Oh, it's great to have a friend like you

Along life's weary road.

One who is kind and true

To help me bear my load.

I thank you now for all you do

To banish doubt and strife.

I'd like to have more friends like you.

Ture-blue until the end;

And if my wish will ever come true—

I shall be such a friend.

Centennial note: one hundred years ago, Confederate Peace Commissioners A. H. Stephens, R. M.T. Hunter and A. J. Campbell carried a flag of truce in front of the battle lines at Peters burg; asked to see General Grant (Jan. 29). Grant held them off because he did not want a negotiated peace leaving the nation divided. He wanted only Surrender and a reunited One Nation. And that's what Grant got at Appomattox . . . but it took a lot of doing and this is just another of the incidents which still make The Centennial a historican's goldmine for study

Add: Centennial incidents. One hundred years ago, Jan. 30, everyone thought the famed guerilla raider, Gen. Mosby, was dead, killed following a fight at Upperville. But on this date, Mosby showed up in the halls of the Confederate Congress at Richmond was given a Dandelion ovation and privileged seat. Hold your Confederate money, boys!

The high school basketball season is nearing its end. Come on out Friday night and see a natural: Appomattox and Altavista. And a salute to the Appomattox girls who have had a commendable season. Altavista has a 4-2 record thus far to our Rebels 1-5 . . . so there is no place to go but up, and all in favor of "going up" come on out and say so.

Marriage Score Is 69-19

County records in Appomattox reveal that sixty-nine marriage licenses were issued here during 1964 with a record of nineteen divorces.
